ABOUT ANASTASIA

Anastasia Lutsenko began captivating audiences at the age of three. Since dedicating herself to music, she has performed and competed in various ensembles, masterclasses, local, national, and international music festivals. In July 2023, Anastasia made her first operatic debut as Julia Bertrum, in Opera NUOVA's production of Mansfield Park by Jonathan Dove. She was fortunate to work with director Brian Deedrick, conductor Kinza Tyrrell, and other leading Canadian pedagogues in the 5-week opera intensive while still in high school. Anastasia is now working on a Bachelor of Music and a Master of Management at the University of British Columbia, under the tutelage of mezzo-soprano Krisztina Szabó. When she is not performing, Anastasia can be found hiking in the countryside, serving in her church's youth ministry, or making good food.

This June, she will be traveling to Fort St. John to compete at The Provincial Arts BC Festival. It would mean a lot if you made a donation to her GoFundMe page, to support her travels. She will also be flying to New Brunswick to work with Dr. Darryl Edwards at The Centre for Opera Studies & Appreciation (COSA) followed by a month of training at Opera Kelowna's Valley Opera Summer Intensive Program with Rosemary Thompson. With boundless ambition, she strives to become a prominent figure in the local music scene as a performer, educator, and entrepreneur.

She thanks you for supporting her craft!

ENJOY THE SHOW!
